

CU Shakespeare CoLab Textual Annotation Application

Please submit the following application, along with accompanying attachments or links, via email to Prof. Rachael Deagman and the Shakespeare Colab at shakespearecolab@gmail.com. The CoLab will review and respond to your submission within 3-5 weeks.

Applicant's name: _____ Date: _____

Email address: _____

Major/minors: _____

Expected Date of Graduation: _____

Play title, act, scene and specific lines (or stage directions) to which your submission relates:

Type of textual annotation you are submitting (CHECK ONE):

Etymology entry

Biographical information

Character description

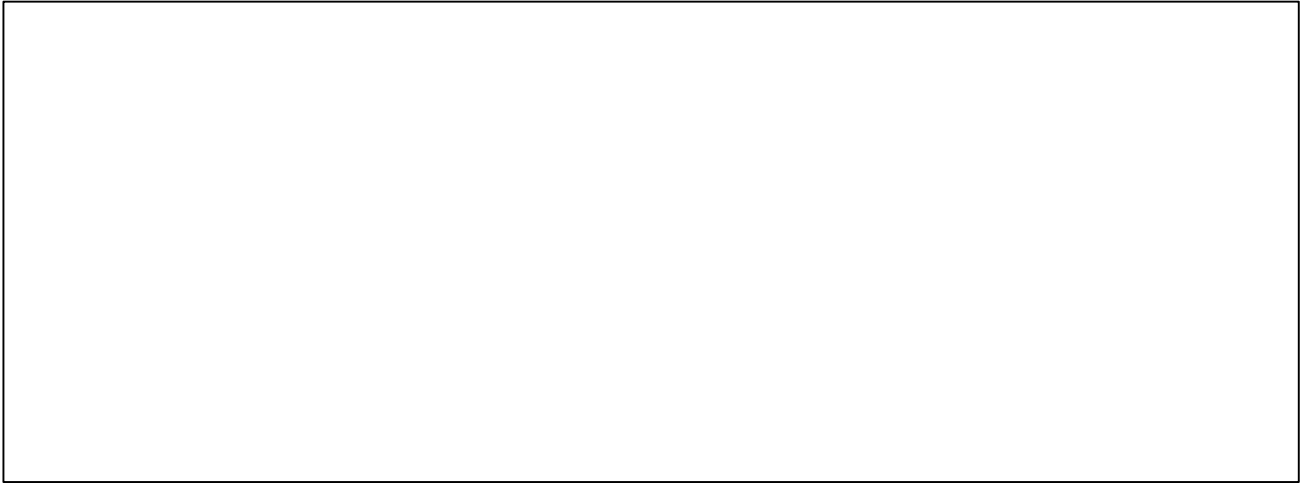

EEBO Quotation

Image (attach JPEG in email submission)

*NOTE: images may only be taken from LUNA, the British Library, or WikiCommons.

Text to go in the annotation (the actual definition, quotation, biographical info etc.):

MLA citation of source:

Give a one paragraph blurb describing the annotation:

CU Shakespeare CoLab
University of Colorado, Boulder
shakespearecolab@gmail.com

CONSENT FOR PUBLICATION OF STUDENT RESEARCH

I, _____ (student's name), authorize the CU Shakespeare CoLab to publish my research along with my first and last name. I consent to allow the CU Shakespeare CoLab to publish my research as digital annotations on their publically accessible website. I acknowledge that this information, along with my first and last name will be available to a public audience. I further acknowledge that my research submitted to be published by the CU Shakespeare CoLab is not for profit and is for educational purposes only. I affirm that the research submitted to the CoLab is my own original research and any copyrighted material therein is intended for educational purposes only. I affirm that any copyrighted material is properly attributed to its creator and/or copyright holder. I affirm that my submission of research was strictly voluntary and not required for class credit or for any other reason.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

Instructor Signature: _____ Date: _____